

Inaugural Symposia on International Cooperation Strengthened in Disasters

January 8, 2012 13:30 - 17:30

Inaugural Symposia: International Cooperation Strengthened in Disasters

N301, No.8 Building, Fukushima Medical University

Chair: Shin-Ichi Niwa, MD, PhD – Head Director, Society for New Psychiatric Care in Soso, Chairman, Department of Neuropsychiatry, Fukushima Medical University

Co-Chair: Robert T. Yanagisawa, MD – Leader Mount Sinai Effort for Japan Relief, Program Director, Clinical Fellowship in Endocrinology, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Lessons We Have Learned After 911

Philip J. Landrigan, MD, MSc – Dean for Global Health, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

American Experience with Disasters and Mental Health

Craig L. Katz, MD – Director, Program in Global Mental Health, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Experiences in the Hanshin-Awaji Great Earthquake

Hiroshi Kato, MD, PhD – Research Director, Hyogo Institute for Traumatic Stress

Global Japan Relief Effort Following the North-Eastern Great Earthquake and the Japanese Medical Society of America

Robert T. Yanagisawa, MD – Leader Mount Sinai Effort for Japan Relief, Program Director, Clinical Fellowship in Endocrinology, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Coordinated US Efforts Toward Japan Relief and Future Vision

Shunichi Homma, MD FACC – Leader Columbia Effort for Japan Relief, Associate Chief, Cardiology Division, Columbia University Medical Center

Providing Highest Quality Medical Information and Resources to Healthcare Workers and Victims of the Triple Catastrophe of 11 March 2011

Thomas G. Hedberg, MSci, PhD - Director, International Medical Crisis Response Alliance

The May 2008 Great Sichuan Earthquake – Program for Training Disaster Mental Health Care Providers

Eizaburo Tanaka, MD – Sichuan Project Expert, Japan International Cooperation Agency(JICA)

Experiences in the North-Eastern Great Earthquake and Accidents in Fukushima Dai-Ichi Nuclear Power Plant – Current State of Mental Health Care in Fukushima

Hirooki Yabe, MD, PhD – Associate Professor, Department of Neuropsychiatry, Fukushima Medical University